Executive Headteacher: John Maxwell

Heads of School: Carol Wallis and Mike Walton

Message from the Headteacher:

Dear Parents and Carers,

I have had a fantastic first week at Roselands and at Stafford getting to know my way around and meeting you, the staff and the children. Everyone has made me feel very welcome and I have enjoyed lots of smiles and kind words on the gates in the mornings. Parents make an important and much valued contribution to children's achievements at school and I am looking forward to getting to know you all better over the coming weeks.

The staff at both schools are all working really hard to provide a great education for your children and I have already seen some excellent learning and behaviour in both schools. I am looking forward to building on this so that everyone is supported and encouraged to be the best they can be.

We are starting to put together ideas for some exciting developments and will share these with you through the newsletter in the coming weeks and months.
